Respected Sir,

I, the undersigned beg leave to place before you the following few words for favourable consideration.

I have received a notification from the Chief Secretary to the Mysore Government that H.H. the Maharaja has been pleased to appoint me as a Probationary Assistant Commissioner. I beg to express my sincere gratitude to you for the help you have rendered me in this matter.

Sir, I have got two months only to finish my B.L. Course of the Calcutta University. Besides, I have just recovered from a long illness. The doctor has advised me to take rest for a month.

Under these circumstances, I most earnestly pray that I may be kindly permitted to join duty in the first week of April.

I beg to remain,
Sir,
Your most obedient Svt.,
R Puttaraj Urs.

Dear Sir,

With reference to the notification No.995/CB.140.19-3, dated the 19th January 1920, from your office, I beg to submit the following.

I am now undergoing the Final year B.L.Course in the Calcutta University. I have got only two months more to complete it.

Then again, I am just recovering from my long illness. The doctor advises me to take complete rest for a month.

Under these circumstances, I most earnestly request you that I may be permitted to join duty in the first week of April.

I beg to remain,
Sir,
Your most obedient Svt,
R. Puttaraj. ars.

Calcutta,

The 24th Jamuary 1920.

To

His Highness Sree

Krishnaraja Wadiyar Bahadur,G.C.S.I.,G.C.B.E.,

May it please your Highness,

The undersigned most humble memorialist most respectfully craves leave to approach your Highness with the following prayer:

2. The humble memorialist has just received a notification from your Highness's Government that your Highness has been most graciously pleased to appoint him as a probationary Assistant Commissioner, for which he begs to express his most profound and humble gratitude to your Highness.

3. The humble memorialist has been undergoing the final year Law Course in the Calcutta University under your Highness'sbenevolent patronage. He has to attend the Law classes only for two months more. He has got some higher ambitions with regard to Law. Unless he can attend the law classes for these two months he will not be able to realise his ambitions.

4. Besides, the two years and ten months' study of law which he has done up till now, will be in vain

if

if he does not attend regularly the Law classes for the remaining two months.

5. Again, he has just recovered from a long illness and the doctor advises him to take complete rest for a month.

6. Under these circumstances, the humble memorialist most respectfully begs to state that he may be permitted to join the office which has been most graciously conferred upon him by your Highness, after two months, that is, in the first week of April. Once again, he humbly prays that his above prayer might most graciously be considered by your Highness.

I beg to remain,

Your Highness's most obedient & humble servant,

R. Pattabhiramayya

if he does not attend regularly the Law classes for the remaining two months.

6. Again, he has just received [illegible] letter from Tilghman and the doctor advises him to take [illegible] for a month.

7. Under these circumstances, the Board [illegible] memorialist does respectfully [illegible] be permitted to join the office which [illegible] Gracetonally conferred upon him of [illegible] Thomas, after two months, that is, in May first next [illegible] again, he shall pursue that [illegible] successfully be counted [illegible]
